On The Road Again

Hello from Oklahoma! Once you receive this letter I will most likely be in Wyoming. The Lord has blessed me immensely with a full schedule. I will be in Oklahoma, Wyoming, South Dakota, Kansas, and Texas over the next few weeks. He has been answering your prayers for my calendar to be full of meetings. I am thankful for the privilege to travel and share the burden that Lord has given me for the Filipino people. I am blessed to see God's handiwork all around me in parts of the United States that some people never have the chance to see in their lifetime. Thank you for your prayers for my safety as I travel on the road again.

The Lord is constantly showing me His goodness. As I am writing this letter, I am sitting in a local coffee shop (Coffee Jerk) in Edmond, Oklahoma. The Lord provided an opportunity for me to share a little of my story with the barista as I ordered my coffee. The Lord still amazes me daily. Even before leaving for Oklahoma, I was needing new tires. The Lord once again provided for me. He constantly reassures me and continues to use me. Pray for extra opportunities to share the Gospel with people who come across my path while I am on the road.

As I travel, I have started listening to audible books. Recently, I listened to The Hiding Place by Corrie ten Boom. I read this book as a child, but this time was a whole different experience. It astonished me that God used an ordinary, spinster, watchmaker woman to reach so many people for God. I will always remember one part of the book. Corrie's first encounter with death as a child. She was frightened that her family was going to die. Her father came up to tuck her into bed as he always did. Corrie cried out, "You can't die; I need you!" Her father sat down on her bed and said, "Corrie, when you and I go to Amsterdam when do I give you your ticket?" Corrie answered, "Why just before I get on the train." Her father continued, "Exactly, and our wise Father in Heaven knows when we need things too. Don't run out in front of Him, Corrie. When the time comes when some of us will have to die, you will look into your heart and find the strength you need just in time." As I am beginning to prepare for my departure to the Philippines, this was a great reminder that I don't need to run out in front of my Heavenly Father. He will give me the strength I need just in time. He has everything already planned for me; I am to simply trust Him. I will be announcing my departure date once I purchase my tickets. Please pray for things to continue to come together for my departure in His perfect timing.

In my last letter, I mentioned that Volcano Taal was at it again. Though it huffed and puffed, so far it has not erupted (Thankfully!). The area surrounding the volcano is still on alert, but they did lower the level of alert for now. On July 23rd there was a 6.7 earthquake. It caused damage to many roads and houses. Please pray for the islands of Mindoro and Province of Batangas on the southernmost part of Luzon. Please pray for the Philippines as they are experiencing another wave of COVID. It appears they are bombarded with one problem after another. Please pray for Heavenly Bible Baptist as they share God's perfect peace to their corner of this dark world.

Prayer Requests:

- Pray that the Philippines will open for foreign travel without restrictions.
- Pray for more prayer partners and financial support. I am at 75%. (PTL!)
- Pray for more meetings through the end of the year.
- Pray for the money needed for my outfit and passage to the Philippines.
