GIVING HOPE TO THE HOPELESS
IN THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

My God Shall Supply All Your Needs

“But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 4:19) I committed this verse to memory as a child. I truly did not understand the significance of it, until I did a word study on the word riches (πλουτος). It means abundance, fullness, or plenitude. What caught my eye as I read the verse again with this new meaning was the word his. The Lord does not supply our needs based on our abundance of wealth, but on His. How reassuring!

After driving about 10,000 miles in the last few months and having a minor wreck, my car needed repairs. The Lord provided the exact amount for these needs through individuals. The Lord also provided three new supporters this last month. One individual and two churches start supporting me. I praise the Lord for this individual and for Victory Baptist Church of Talbott, Tennessee and Bible Baptist Church of Plymouth, Indiana. I am now at 75% of my support needed. The Lord continues to supply all my needs according to His riches.

As I am three-quarters of the way to my goal, I have started to make plans for my departure to the Philippines. I thank the Lord for bringing me this far. I am trusting Him to help me finish deputation. I will continue to schedule churches into January 2022. I will share more about my departure as things start to finalize. I have set up an outfit and passage fund at Baptist International Outreach. I am praying for a total of $10,000. (This includes funds for an airline ticket, a possible two-week quarantine at a government sanctioned hotel, residential visa application fee, first and last month’s rent with security deposit, and appliances.) If you would like to have a part in this, you can send it to BIO and make a note that it is for Amber Yingling’s outfit and passage fund. I know the Lord will provide for these needs as He has faithfully provided for all of my needs past and present.

Heavenly Bible Baptist Church is doing well. Restrictions continue, but the ministry is thriving. They are in full swing again with their services, Bible studies, and children’s outreaches with very minimum restrictions. I am looking forward to being with them soon. The land the Lord provided for the church is being prepared for plumbing and electricity. It is coming along great. The health of the congregation is doing well with a few still sick. Please pray for their full recovery. The Lord continues to provide for the needs of His people in the Philippines.

Prayer Requests:

- That the Philippines will open for foreign travel without restrictions.
- For more prayer partners and financial support. I am at 75%. (PTL!)
- For more meetings from July 2021 through January 2022.
- For the money needed for my outfit and passage to the Philippines.
