Desires of the Heart

“Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.” (Psalm 37: 4-5) My heart’s greatest desire is to be in the Philippines serving the Lord by giving hope to the hopeless. Even though I have only known the people there for a short time, I feel as though they are family. I know the Lord will bring it to pass in His perfect timing. Gladys Aylward is one of my favorite missionaries. I came across this quote, “Do not wish me out of this or in any way seek to get me out, for I will not go out... These are my people; God has given them to me; and I will live or die with them for Him and His glory.” When people ask me why I am headed to the Philippines, this is how I want to respond. God has called me to love them and share Jesus Christ with them. Nothing will ever change this desire of my heart.

Thank you for your prayers and support!

The month of October has been very busy. I was blessed to be a part of the mission conference at Lighthouse Baptist Church in Ludington, Michigan. It was a great time of fellowship and encouragement with God’s people. I have been visiting churches in the Knoxville area and have scheduled several meetings. The Lord blessed; in one week I scheduled seven meetings. I am thankful that my November schedule is filled until Thanksgiving. Please pray for me as I travel and continue to schedule meetings. I am currently at 30%. I continue to pray for the right financial partners to come alongside me. My goal is to leave this Spring. I am thankful for all of the churches and individuals that have been giving and praying for me faithfully. I would not be able to do what the Lord has called me to do without your faithfulness. I appreciate everyone with the desire to help send missionaries into the uttermost parts of the world.

The Filipino people are currently recovering from Typhoon Molave. In some parts of the Philippine Islands there is great flooding. The news reported that over 25,000 villagers were evacuated from their homes due to flooding and wind damage. Thankfully, there was no major damage in the area where I will be serving (Lipa City). Please pray for those who are affected by this storm. Please pray for Heavenly Bible Baptist Church and Pastor Rusty Ocampo as they serve the Lord during this time of uncertainty and disaster. Pray that God will use them to share the hope of Jesus Christ. They have a desire to expand their ministry in order to reach many more people for the Lord.

I pray that you all will have a great time with family and friends during this Thanksgiving season. Even though this year has been crazy; we have so much to be thankful for.

May God Bless You All!

“Looking for that blessed hope...” Titus 2:13
